WOODROW WILSON'S
WOBBLY WAYS

While President Wilson is trying to fool labor into the belief that he is a sincere advocate of the 8-hour day, his own cabinet is violating an 8-hour day law. If an 8-hour day has "the sanction of society," as Mr. Wilson declared regarding the railway controversy, why is it not enforced in the postal service is the question which Thomas F. Flaherty, president of the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, has put to various officials and finally to the President. After expending every effort to relieve the abuse of postal clerks, which he describes as worse under the Wilson administration than ever before, President Flaherty finally wrote President Wilson describing the outrageous treatment of the postal clerks and asserting that Postmaster General Burleson and other responsible officials "are seemingly indifferent to the plight of the clerks." By his failure to answer Mr. Flaherty's letter President Wilson indicates that he is equally indifferent to the welfare of the postal clerks. "The postal department officials have placed you in the untenable position of advocating a principle in private employment—the eight-hour day—which is not in effect in Government employment, solely because of a desire for a greater postal surplus," wrote Mr. Flaherty to President Wilson. Mr. Flaherty declares that, "In its treatment of the aged service workers the present administration has been brutal" and says that, "In an effort to belittle the worth of the mail collectors," Assistant Postmaster General Roper told the House Postoffice Committee that their work could be performed by "a blind man or a boy."

The gauge marks 13.1 this morning and rising.

The first of the coal fleet passed down yesterday afternoon.

About two feet more of water is expected by the local rivermen.

There will be no packet today. The Greenland will leave Cincinnati tonight at 5 o'clock for Pomeroy.

Navigation was resumed Thursday afternoon to all upper Ohio river points from Cincinnati by the Greene Line Steamers.

The towboat Crusader, that was grounded on Nine Mile Sandbar has been floated off with six barges and a coal digger and reached the Cincinnati port.

REMAINS BROUGHT HERE

The remains of Mrs. John D. Pickett who died at Chicago on Saturday, were brought to this city this morning at 10 o'clock and were taken to the Beasley Cemetery where they will be interred. Rev. Will Loos of Maysville will preach the funeral service. Mrs. Pickett was formerly Miss Jessie Brownell of Atlanta, Ga. Her husband is a nephew of Messrs. W. L. and T. L. Holton of the county. She is survived by her husband, one son and three daughters.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICE

A very unique and enjoyable service was held in the Christian Church last night. One of J. T. Kackley & Co.'s New Edison Phonograph was used throughout the service to furnish the music of the event. In two selections reproduced on the New Edison, the congregation joined in the singing. These two selections were "I Love to Tell the Story" and "O, Love That Will Not Let Me Go." The two selections, "The Perfect Day" by the Metropolitan Quartet with Orchestra accompaniment and "Somewhere A Voice Is Calling" by Elizabeth Spencer, soprano and Vernon Archibald, baritone, were effectively accompanied by Dr. P. G. Smoot on his violin. Some of the other selections reproduced on the instrument were "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," "The Glory Song" and "The Holy City." The minister, A. F. Stahl, spoke briefly on the Deathless Book the Bible. It was noticeable how nicely the character and sentiment of the pieces reproduced blended with the thought of the scripture reading, the minister's prayer and the theme of the sermon. So much did the audience present enjoy the service that the majority remained a half hour and many a full hour after the closing of the church service to hear other numbers played.

DIES IN LOUISVILLE

Mrs. Emma Roe Barnes, wife of Dr. Joseph Barnes, died at her home in Louisville Saturday afternoon after an extended illness. Mrs. Barnes was connected with a very prominent family of this county. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Russell and Mr. R. H. Pollitt of this city are in Nicholasville, Ky., today attend the funeral, which will be held there at 12 o'clock.

DIES FROM OPERATION

Mr. L. L. Scherer, general claim agent of the C. & O. railroad, died in Richmond, Va., Saturday night from the effects of an operation. Mr. Scherer was well known here. He was formerly a detective on the railroad and about two years ago was shot in the stomach by a negro. After recovering from the wound he was made claim agent.

DID NOT MAKE INVESTIGATION

Coroner Charles Slack did not make any particular investigation in the case of the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall shooting his brother. There was only one witness to the affair, the boy himself and he claims it was accidental. No prosecution will be made, as the boy is too young to understand the enormity of the deed.

ON THE WRONG SIDE

The local police Saturday night took Gilbert Edwards of the county for driving his auto on the wrong side of the street. He will be tried before Judge Whitaker this afternoon. If the police would get busy and look after all violators of the traffic laws the city treasury might be increased some little bit.

WILL MOVE THIS WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilcox of East Fourth street will remove this week to their beautiful new home on West Third street. The home presents one of the most attractive appearances in the West End of the city and can easily be seen from Second street.

FEATURE TODAY

Bert Williams, famous comedian, formerly with Ziegfeld's Follies, will appear in a negro comedy at the Pastime Monday, "A Natural Born Gambler." The picture is a Biograph production and is an excellent comedy. Come out and see it.

Mr. Verner Dryden, the east end coal merchant, has purchased several lots in the recent addition above the ball park and a switch is now being laid to them. He will open a small coal yard here to be used chiefly in unloading cement, etc.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

The Maysville Pirates and the fast Augusta specials played the last game of the series of games for the championship of Northern Kentucky at League Park Sunday afternoon, Maysville winning by the close score of 4 to 2 and thereby taking the championship, having won two straight. About three hundred spectators witnessed the contest, which was full of thrilling plays. The features of the game were the wonderful pitching of Willie Green, Moore's base stealing and Kelly Grandison's home run. Mr. Whitley, white manager of the Ripley club, said yesterday that he would sign a contract soon with the Maysville club for Saturday and Sunday afternoon games in 1917. Whitley was greatly pleased with the management of Henry Moore of the local team and may sign him up to manage the Ripley team next season.

HERE AND THERE

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going on a "trip," please drop us a line, a short note.

Mr. M. H. Rivine of Lexington has been a recent visitor in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Davidson of Fifth street spent the day in Cincinnati Sunday.

Mr. S. J. Robinson of Lexington spent Sunday with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Roser left yesterday for a visit to friends in Ashland.

Miss Margaret Hunter of Huntington, W. Va., is spending a few days with relatives in this city.

Miss Edith Owens left Sunday for Cincinnati where she will spend the winter with her relatives.

Mr. Henry Key of Louisville arrived Saturday on a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Key of Walnut street.

Mrs. Lue Hartman returned to her home in Brooksville, Ind., Saturday after a visit with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Herbert of Aberdeen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Everett and sons of West Third street left Saturday for Wino, Okla., on a visit with relatives. They will be gone about two weeks.

Misses Estella and Frieda Nauman of the West End left yesterday on a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Chicago, Detroit and Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Dawson returned home this morning from a five month's stay at Portsmouth, where Mr. Dawson went for treatment. His many friends here will be glad to know that he has improved and hope that his improvement will lead to a restoration to his usual good health.

Mr. Thomas P. Boone, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was in Cincinnati Saturday looking after some business. He interviewed the heads of two concerns that are desirous of locating in a small town near that city and it is quite probable that they may be interested in Maysville.

BERT WILLIAMS TODAY

Bert Williams, formerly with Ziegfeld's Follies and the greatest black face comedian that ever appeared in motion pictures is featured in "A Natural Born Gambler," a corking good comedy to be shown at the Pastime this afternoon and night. Bert Williams support is composed of all colored actors. This alone, will be a great novelty. Allen Forrest and Ruth Saville will also appear in "Playthings of the Gods."

HAS SCARLET FEVER

Master John Taulbee Shaw of Houston avenue is confined to his home with a light case of scarlet fever. The boy's condition is not at all serious.

To keep the little ones healthy and happy, their tender, sensitive bodies require a gentle, healing remedy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is mild and harmless, but thorough—it's just what the baby needs.—J. J. Wood & Son.

PERHAPS HE MAY DIE

You have named as your Executive a friend. He is familiar with your affairs. You trust him. Suppose, however, he should die shortly after you and before your Estate is settled up. Wouldn't it throw your affairs into confusion? The Court would appoint an Administrator de bonis non cum testamento annexo—and he wouldn't know any more about your affairs and how your Estate should be managed than the average layman knows about the meaning of these words. Name us as your Executor and you eliminate this "perhaps." We are a responsible corporation and do not die.
